Feature Libations

Curated by in-house Sommelier and Mixologist Cindy Cooper

Signature Cocktail

Against The Grain $17 Created by Josh B 2.5 oz

Avallen Calvados, Giffard Mangalore, Lemon, Demerara, Oat

Grape Highlight: Chenin Blanc and Syrah

Loic Mahé 'Le Petit Moulin' Savennieres, Loire Valley, France Glass $18 Bottle $70

Deeply textured and savoury with notes of overripe pear, honeysuckle and a distinct flintiness that lingers on the palate until your next sip. Rich without being brassy, luscious without being cloying, natural without being unconventional. Perfect while being perfect.

Matthieu Barret Petit Ours Brun Cotes du Rhone, FR Glass $20 Bottle $78

IYKYK. Affectionately called the 'bear wine', this 100% syrah is all about the fruit. Blackberry and black currant to be precise, with hints of leather, black pepper and fresh herbs. Considered natural, the palate is very clean with the perfect amount of funk.

Producer Highlight: Tarsier Gin

Strap on your backpacks and take a journey through South East Asia by way of Gin. On a trip through Thailand, Taiwan and the Philippines the founders of Tarsier were romanced by the fare they were experiencing and wanted to create a gin that celebrated South Asian cuisine; a balance of sweet, sour, spicy and umami. They named their gin after the the Philippine Tarsier, one of the worlds smallest primates. They have become endangered due to habitat loss and illegal pet trade. Their mission is to raise awareness and to funds to help protect them. They donate 10% of the their profits to Tarsier conservation efforts.

Khao San Gin $12

Khao san is an expression of the vibrant Khao San Road in Bangkok. Kaffir lime leaf, lemongrass and Thai red chili. Bursting with savoury earthy notes of red pepper, undertones of lemony citrus and aromatic hints of kaffir lime leaf. The chilli flavour packs a punch without the heat.

Taipei Old Tom Gin $12

This Old Tom is inspired by the famous oolong teas of Taiwan. The result is a refreshly fruity gin with a restrained sweetness from wild honey, tang from zesty kumquat and undertones of freshly cut herbs.

Calamansi Citrus Gin $12

The island of Bohol is the home of the Tarsier primate; the namesake of these gins. Calamansi leads the way along with yuzu, kaffir lime and jasmine leading to a super fresh and vibrant spirit.

Enjoy these gins over ice or mixed into your favourite cocktail. Slainte!
